Antioch Lions Festival Draws 20,000 Visitors

Visitors from Far and Near Enjoy Themselves at 3-Day Fete

"Lots of fun—and more PEOPLE." was the general impression of the third annual Antioch Lions festival carried away by the 20,000 persons who came from far and near to join in the fun Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Saturday night's crowd alone was estimated as being from 8,000 to 10,000 persons.

The reputation of Antioch and surrounding lake territory for friendliness and general hospitality was apparently sustained by the good time enjoyed by all. Many visitors to Antioch at festival time in the past have been encouraged to make return visits by the good time they had here, and it is believed that this year's festival has also been instrumental in making more "friends" for Antioch and the lakes region.

Free entertainment, including Capt. E. H. Hugo's high dive, a bathing beauty revue, a soap box derby, jitterbug contest and free dancing, as well as numerous rides and carnival attractions, helped provide plenty of entertainment for all.

Soap Box Derby
In the first round Leonard Roblin won over Robert Ellis; Mary Jane Maples, the only girl entrant, eliminated Howard Nevitt; James Murrie came in ahead of Ralph Trieger; Russell Stowe defeated Jack Message. Peter Riess then defeated Towe, and Wesley Reeves won over Mary Jane Maples to complete the first round.

Lake County Sanatorium to Be Dedicated

Ceremony at New $463,000 Building Will be Held Sunday, August 18

Lake county has the finest tuberculosis hospital in the world.

Standing on the highest ground in Waukegan and literally crying out that it will give health and strength to those ill with the dreaded disease, national attention is focused upon it.

The architectural style attracts first because it is of the modern design in which straight lines were used to permit the unrestricted ventilation and light, so vital in the treatment of tuberculosis.

It is the only hospital in the world that has been built around this motif, and architects everywhere are asking for its plans and pictures. In fact the leading publication of the profession is devoting 16 pages to the Lake County Tuberculosis Sanatorium.

Sets New Standard

From the equipment and maintenance standpoint, it exemplifies the very latest and best. Leading authorities point out this hospital has already set a new standard in the highly specialized field.

The medical profession has been unanimous in congratulating this hospital for its progressiveness and for its position as the one here every county in the United States.

Armour Tech. Honors Former Antioch Man

Student Yearbook, "Cycle," Is Dedicated to W. E. Kelly

Dedicated to William Ernest Kelly, formerly of Antioch, is the 1940 "Cycle," student yearbook of Armour Institute of Technology, Chicago. Kelly is registrar of the school and has been connected with it for the past 30 years.

He is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William H. Kelly of Antioch and a brother of Claire Kelly, who conducts a repair business on Lake street.

The dedication is made, the Class of 1940 states in the "Cycle." In recognition of the many services rendered in the three decades of his association with Armour Institute.

School Highly Rated
The school with which Kelly is connected is today recognized as one of America's greatest technological institutions.

It was founded in 1892 by the late P. D. Armour, who was also the founder of the great packing firm of Armour and company, with the proviso that the Rev. Frank Gunsaulus give five years of his life to the institution.

Armour Tech. now has an enrollment of more than 7,000 day and evening students and a faculty of between 350 and 400 members.

Its president, Henry T. Heald, was a speaker at a dinner meeting of the Antioch Lions club last winter. Kelly was a guest of the club on that occasion.

McMillen to Face The Swedish Angel In Grayslake Ring

Jim to Pit Cuning Against Brute Strength of Ring Monstrosity

The most important wrestling match held in Lake county since Jim London successfully defended his world's heavyweight wrestling championship against Lou Plummer in the Libertyville High School gymnasium more than six years ago, will take place Friday night, August 16, in Peg's Open-Air Arena at Grayslake, when the Swedish Angel, neanderthal monstrosity of the mat, pits cave-man brute strength, against the ring cunning of one of the sport's greatest performers, Jim McMillen of Antioch.

Fans who watched the none-too-angelic Angel tear Fredrick von Schacht, the German giant, down to his own size in his Lake county debut a month ago, are putting odds on the line that their own great favorite, McMillen, will not be able to stick thirty minutes against the mat sport's horror-man number one.

Even colourless sport scribes accustomed to the most unaccustomed, are writing of the Swedish Angel as the most logical contender for the highly disputed world's championship. Undisputed world's champion, he has defeated in more than 18 months of his title campaign, the Angel's match with the one and only Jim McMillen is expected to be a ring classic.

In the semi-windup on the four match card Friday, 6 foot 6 inch, 245-pound Fredrick von Schacht, will attempt to end the unbroken winning streak of the Mexican Adonis, Juan Humberto. The hot tamale from south of the border divides his time between rough ridings in Western screen thrillers on Hollywood movie lots and riding rough shod over the best heavyweights in the sport. His Lake county victims include Chief Sanookie, Fred Grubner, and last week the heretofore unbeaten Bert Rubi.

In the preliminary matches, "Bad Boy" Brown of Memphis tangles with rough and tough Farmer Mack, while Paul Bozell of Eagle's Beak, Ariz., takes holds with Al "Whitey" Williams, tattooed blonde heavyweight from Fox Lake.

As usual, popular prices will prevail, and several hundred additional seats are being moved in to take care of the anticipated over-flow crowd.

Prepare Site for New Chevrolet Garage Home

Workmen were busy this week filling in the ground on what will be the site of the new Chevrolet garage, north of the Lakes theatre on Main street, almost opposite the present garage. Offers for the use of the old building, including the possibility of its utilization as a bowling alley, have already been received by Elmer Renner, mgr.

Phyllis Mount Is Injured In Attempt to Avoid Bicyclist

Auto Strikes Pillar Beside Driveway as She Turns Off Road

Miss Phyllis Mount, 20, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Mount, is recovering at her home on North Main street from injuries suffered when the automobile in which she was riding skidded and struck a culvert as she attempted to avoid hitting a bicyclist who swerved into her path.

She was driving north on Highway 59 south of Grand avenue Monday afternoon when she swerved to the left to pass Roy Tepp, 14, of Chicago, who was riding a bicycle in the north-bound lane. Tepp became confused and also swerved to the left, into the path of the car.

As Miss Mount applied the brakes and attempted to turn aside into a nearby driveway, the car struck a pillar at the side of the drive and was badly damaged.

Miss Mount, who was dazed by the shock of the impact and suffered bruises and the loss of two teeth, was brought to her home by William M. Marks of Lake Villa.

Tepp was grazed by the car, but sustained only minor injuries.

It also lists township officers and gives telephone numbers for emergency use, as in the case of fire, drowning or illness.

Youth Loses Life Swimming to Raft

Death by accidental drowning was the verdict of a coroner's jury at an inquest conducted by Deputy Coroner M. D. Penny in the Strang funeral parlors Thursday evening over the death of Norman Roehrig, 17, of Chicago.

Roehrig was drowned Thursday in Lake Catherine when he and a companion, Roland Moeller, 17, also of Chicago, who were attending a church picnic at the lake, attempted to swim to a raft.

When Moeller observed that his friend was missing he dived for him and succeeded in bringing the body up within a few minutes.

The Antioch first aid squad worked over him for two hours in an attempt to revive him.

A 10-day camp period for 330 Chicago boys at Camp Wooster, maintained by the Jewish Young Men's council at Round lake, ended with the return of the boys to Chicago on special busses Friday.

A prize trap shoot will be held at Haling's resort on Grass lake Sunday, August 18.

Croquet Threats Draw Challenge from Antioch

"We'll be Pleased to Beat You," Panowski Tells Wis. Players

Bouquets of cabbage and nettles gracefully heaved in the direction of Antioch's leading croquet players by "Dick" Moran and his "gang" from over the Wisconsin state line are drawing a return nosegay this week from Joe Panowski, acting as spokesman for Antioch.

Panowski issues a firecracker challenge couched in terms calculated to arouse to direct action every drop of red blood in the veins of the Wisconsin men.

Says Joe: Mr. Dick Moran, Fairway Grill, Dear Sir:

I noticed in last week's Antioch News the threat you made about what you and your would-be croquet players would do to the Antioch players if you got the chance. I presume you mean what you would like to do.

Surely, Dick, you have had plenty of chance this summer to show us. Or is it that your memory is as poor as your playing. Anyway, we shall be your happy to accommodate you and your dubs again anywhere and any time. And we hope the next time you play you use your mallets as efficiently as you do your mouths.

Your truly, J. Panowski and Players.

This sizzling missive, which practically scorched the envelope in which it was placed, will not, it is believed, be ignored by Moran, but is expected to draw some real results in the way of action.

Meanwhile, brawny gentlemen on either side of the line are practicing diligently for a friendly (h'm) game or two believed to be in the offing. Play is being carried on at the homes of croqueters with suitable lawns and on the lighted grass courts at Moran's Fairway grill on Highway 83 and Johnny Gever's tavern in Trevor.

Hypocrisy of New Deal

Now Out in the Open

New Deal apologists desperately are struggling to make it appear that the new chairman of the Democratic National Committee, selected in the White House with the blessing of President Roosevelt to run his third term campaign, possesses all the virtues of his predecessor, James A. Farley.

There is as much difference between Jim Farley and Ed Flynn as there is between day and night. Farley was a hard-hitting, practical politician who played the game according to the orthodox rules. But if anyone ever found a shady spot in Jim Farley's career, it has not been revealed to this writer—who incidentally has been on the lookout for such a revelation. Farley, in spite of general belief, was never a part of Tammany Hall.

But Flynn, despite his frequent donning of a Prince Albert coat and gates ajar collar, is tainted with all the defects and sins of the big city Democratic machines. He is one with Ed Kelly of Chicago and Frank Hague of New Jersey.

WHAT LA GUARDIA THOUGHT OF FLYNN

Persons who are close to the New Deal in the past have said a great deal worse about him. One such witness is Mayor Fiorella LaGuardia of New York City. There is no warmer, more ardent supporter of the New Deal than Mayor LaGuardia. We do not know what he thinks about Ed Flynn today, but in 1933 he had rather a low opinion of the man who is now running the Roosevelt campaign.

In the New York Times of October 24, 1933, we find the following story:

"F. H. LaGuardia, Fusion candidate for Mayor, bitterly attacked Joseph V. McKee, his Recovery Party opponent, and Edward J. Flynn, Democratic leader of the Bronx, last night as protectors of graft, racketeering and exploitation."

"He accuses them of conniving with unscrupulous contractors to cheat labor on city jobs of its just wages; he charged them with responsibility for the suicide of Louis H. Willard, a Hofstadter committee witness, and he said that the former Aldermanic President was a candidate in this campaign 'because Ed Flynn had the goods on him.'"

FLYNN COMPARED TO CROKER AND TWEED

A little further in this story, it is recounted that Mayor LaGuardia asserted that "Ed Flynn of the Bronx is as low and as vicious as Croker or as Boss Tweed, and he couldn't find another person who was low enough to be his candidate, and they made Joe McKee the candidate because Ed Flynn has the goods on him."

Those are pretty harsh words even from so brutally frank a person as Mayor LaGuardia. We do not know whether they are true but that is what New York's present Mayor said about Ed Flynn and now Mr. LaGuardia is one of the New Deal's most sympathetic friends.

In 1938, Thomas E. Dewey, the fearless rackets prosecutor in New York County, had some things to say about Ed Flynn. For instance, he called attention to the fact that Flynn when sheriff of the Bronx in 1925 named as a deputy sheriff the notorious "Dutch Schultz." Fleckenheimer, whom Dewey described as "the trigger man for Legs Diamond and Owney Madden," Schultz, it will be recalled, figured in the famous case of Jimmy Hines, the Tammany leader, sent to the penitentiary by Thomas E. Dewey.

Mr. Dewey on that occasion also recalled that six months after naming "Dutch Schultz" as his deputy sheriff, Flynn was appointed chamberlain of the City of New York to have "custody of trust funds belonging to widows and orphans."

LOST FUNDS OF WIDOWS AND ORPHANS

"You all know," Mr. Dewey continued, "the record of the city chamberlain's office under Boss Flynn's administration. You all know about the notorious State Title and Mortgage Company, many of whose officers have since been convicted of crimes. You all remember how $6,500,000 of these trust funds were invested in so-called guaranteed mortgages and certificates; how more than one-third of that amount, over $2,000,000, was invested in certificates of the State Title and Mortgage Company. It is this man to whom widows and orphans whose funds he had held in trust look in vain for payment on the investment of their funds."

"Now the damage caused by Flynn's reckless investment of other people's money wasn't really known until the crash came sometime later. And when the crash came, where was Ed Flynn? Again he had been promoted. He had arrived at the exalted office he now holds—Secretary of State of the State of New York, at $12,000 a year, by appointment of the Governor of the State of New York!"

Samuel Seabury, another battler for decency in New York City, several years ago said he saw no difference between the then Boss Curry of Tammany Hall and Boss Flynn of the Bronx, since "both stand for the same Tammany system of government, the purpose of which is to allow them to fatten on political spoils and to use the people's money for that purpose."

And now Ed Flynn moves on to the national scene. His choice as Democratic chairman was indeed an apt one as it symbolizes the big city corrupt political machine support which made possible the third term nomination of Mr. Roosevelt and because it brings out into the open the unsavory alliance of the New Deal with such political machines. At last the hypocrisy which has been so large a part of the New Deal becomes apparent to all!

The steamer Tees arrived at Victoria, B. Few authors can originate an eighteenth-century romance more skillfully than Jeffery Farnol; no one has a surer gift for making characters in romance without robbing them of conviction and reality.

"The Lonely Road" is the best Farnol tradition—a stirring stand-and-deliver tale of fight and sacrifice, of sword and spear in the moonlight, of ambush and rescue—and chiefly of Jason Wayne, Jacobite and fugitive, with a price on his head. The widely-known writer of "The Broad Highway," "Believe the Smith," and "The Amateur Gentleman" has given us a superb, full-blooded romance, played against a background of the fascinating past.

"A City of Bell" by Elizabeth Gouldie is laid in an English cathedral town with all its delightful cross-currents of ecclesiastical gossip, its amusing jealousies, its rare, mellow character. But all this is of course just background for Jocelyn Irvin, a young man who doesn't quite know what to make of his life. Then he meets Henrietta who is ten and came from an orphanage and Hugh Anthony who is two years older and asks questions at infinitum and Felicity Summers who is one of the leading actresses of the English stage, and things begin to happen to him. Through it all is woven the dark, mysterious fate of Perran, a strange, twisted genius. It is with this material that Miss Gouldie has written another story of charm and rare delight that is worthy of a place beside her previous volume, "Island Magic."

The story of Douglas Carter, sensitive son of parents who had had brilliant university careers but had dropped into the backwater of a museum in a small Cornish town. "Summer, Leave" by the well known author E. Armit Robertson. In his revolt against English family life, Douglas early learned to determine his own values, face his own problems, fight his own battles, and find inspiration and fulfillment in his own love.

Patient, honest, resourceful, Douglas started out on the slow climb to fame in his chosen profession of architect. On his way he found—and won—a woman who had fine eyes, the rarest laugh he had ever heard, and a spirit of companionship more compelling than love.

In "It's Not My Problem" Kenneth Horan pictures the crowded life of a young matron of present-day Chicago—a literary lady whose days are replete with editors, artists, musicians and social luminaries—and whose family proceeds, as families frequently will to further complicate those days in every way possible.

"Mystery House," by Kathleen Norris is a fascinating, prowling tale full of atmosphere and suspense and at the same time a sincere, warmhearted and appealing love story. When Page Hazeltine accepted the unusual position of companion to an elderly and eccentric old lady in a legendary mansion on the wild California coast, she became involved in a series of circumstances from which there could be no withdrawal. Old Mrs. Prendergast was not only immensely wealthy, but possessed one of the world's largest diamonds—a strangely assorted group of people formed her menage. Among them, Page learned that her chief concern must be with Lynn, a boy of twenty-five who was suffering from a form of amnesia, and whose position in the household no one exactly knew. She learned also, that her own future was dependent on the outcome of a sinister puzzle.

Many Entries are Expected for Lake Go. Fair Aug. 29-31

Lake county's sleekest cattle, fattest hogs, wooliest sheep and prancingest horses will parade before the judges' stand for gold and for blue ribbon glory Thursday, Friday and Saturday, August 29, 30 and 31, on the Antioch Township High school grounds in Lake county's 17th annual farm fair.

According to D. H. Minto of Antioch, President of the fair, and officers E. E. Elsbark of Gurnee, Earl H. Kane of Mundelein, Bert Edwards of Antioch, Emmet W. King of Wadsworth, H. A. Tillotson of Antioch, and William A. Chandler of Gurnee, the 1940 fair is expected to draw out

How Antioch, Lake county and the other 15,097 local governmental bodies in Illinois can help to solve the nation's toughest problem—that of depression—was told today by Mrs. Melville Muckelstone, president of the National Consumers Tax commission, Chicago.

A sum "sufficient to purchase 417 pursuit planes" of the most advanced design plus 1,384 fast, light tanks "would be saved each year if local governments in this state would adopt only two administrative improvements—centralized purchasing and the merit system—according to the head of the commission, which has 58 study groups in Illinois.

Authorities estimate universal adoption of centralized purchasing would save 3 per cent, or $24,227,500 of the $843,550,000 spent annually by local governments in the state, Mrs. Muckelstone, who is a former national president of the American Legion auxiliary, declared. "An average saving of 50 per cent of $27,134,800 would be realized through personnel selection by merit. Pursuit ships cost $35,000 each and light armored tanks, $17,500.

"Other economies, such as institution of sound budgetary methods, consolidating governmental units, proper planning and abolition of obsolete and unnecessary offices would save additional millions. If local governments throughout the nation would eliminate inefficiency and waste by the adoption of these methods the total sum saved would more than offset the $994,400,000 to be raised annually through the National Defense Tax act which went into effect July 1.

"Every loyal American favors the rearmament of our nation now regardless of cost. But while taxpayers are paying this bill, they have a right to expect local governments to make every effort to save where essential services will not be sacrificed.

"Citizens everywhere are performing a patriotic service of the highest order when they urge efficient administrative methods on their local officials. I am proud that NCTC women are in the vanguard of this economy drive."

a longer list of entries from more Lake county farmers than any event of this kind ever presented here.

Lake county young people will bask in the spotlight of attention when they lead their perfectly groomed club calves, and other livestock into the show ring for prizes during the greater part of the day on Friday and Saturday. Girls' 4-H club projects will occupy a considerable portion of the high school auditorium which will be converted into an exhibition hall for the duration of the fair.

During the evenings a mammoth-horse show featuring a spectacular array of trick riding in addition to the usual horse show events, will thrill thousands of local equestrian enthusiasts who are expected to gather at Antioch from all parts of the country. Special circus acts, drum and bugle parades, games, contests, and nightly band concerts will add to the fun and excitement of the county's biggest annual festival.

This year for the first time, the annual Lake County Farmers' picnic will be held right on the fair grounds the last day of the fair.

To the Trade:

Mr. H. A. Gray, Director of the Bituminous Coal Division, U. S. Department of the Interior, has announced that bituminous prices for all grades of bituminous coal, as established under the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, will become effective September 3, 1940.

The United States Supreme Court has upheld the constitutionality of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937. It seems certain, therefore, that the bituminous coal industry will be subject to price regulation, as established by the Bituminous Coal Division, on and after the effective date above mentioned.

This will raise prices of Coal. Kindly get orders in early so we can protect you on lowest possible prices.

Lions Festival....

Special and Reeves received second prize. In the tournament of losers for the consolation prize Ellis defeated Neville; Trieger won over Jack Messager; Mary Maplethorpe defeated Russell Stowe; Trieger won over Ellis; and Mary Jane eliminated Gerald Morris. At the start of the final Trieger's car ran off the side of the starting ramp and Mary Jane showed her fine sportsmanship by stopping before crossing the finish line. This cost her the race for the second start Trieger won. Mary Jane was applauded and was awarded a prize for her sportsmanship.

In charge of the derby were Elmer Rentner, committee chairman and official starter; Dr. D. N. Deering, observer at the finish line; Edward Kapsa, scorer, and R. G. Holtz and O. E. Hachmeister, announcers.

The entrants are looking forward to another derby next year. "It's o. k. I'll get another chance next year—I'll not be over the age limit," remarked one of the losers after the race, while the winners talked over what they were planning to do with their prize money.

High Dives by Hugo
Spectacular leaps performed by Capt. E. H. Hugo from the top of a 100-foot ladder on a regulation fireman's truck thrilled the audiences nightly.

In addition to Captain Hugo, a native of Oklahoma and Missouri who has for 29 years toured the United States and foreign countries performing his death-defying feats, showed an exhibit of carved wood figurines he has made as a hobby.

Betty Scheibe Wins
In the bathing beauty revue that was a feature Saturday afternoon, Miss Betty Scheibe of Antioch was given first place, with second and third places going to Dorothy McKay of Slide Inn, Channel Lake, and Clara Sieben of Channel Lake Bluffs.

Seven other attractive entrants from around the lakes helped to make the revue enjoyable and the judges' decision a difficult one.

Jitterbugs Have Almost "Professional" Touch
Dancing that would not have disgraced professionals was done by some of the entrants in the jitterbug contest held Sunday evening, after being postponed from Saturday night because of threatened showers of rain.

Al Jones and Miss Betty Claughton of Slide Inn, dancing together for the first time, it is reported, took top honors with Mr. and Mrs. J. Ault of Oak Park second.

Tap dances by Master Charles Lackey, Chicago, who is vacationing at the lakes, were a special feature Saturday and Sunday. Charles, who is one of the 12 children in the Lackey family, is said never to have studied dancing, but he delighted his audiences with the clever routines he has picked up by himself.

Allendale Band, Drum Corps Play
Adding a colorful touch to the festival were the Allendale Boys' marching band from Allendale Farm, Lake Villa, and the Antioch Junior Legion Drum and Bugle corps.

The Allendale band was featured at the festival Saturday, and the drum corps paraded and played the preceding day.

Booths Maintained
Winners of special awards during the festival were A. L. Snipes, Highland Park, washing machine; Adele Holz, Antioch, electric toaster; Fred Stiegler, Chicago, radio. These awards were presented Sunday evening.

Besides the carnival rides and other concessions, booths were maintained on the grounds by the Antioch fire department, the Antioch Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, P. T. A., Junior Legion Drum and Bugle corps, and the Order of the Eastern Star.

Fortune telling, a la mode and de luxe, was for sale on the grounds by Mrs. Anna Runnberg, "certified medium" of 2310 Lehigh avenue, Chicago. Anna couldn't tell the boss where his little dog had gone, or how long it would be until he picked a bit of his somewhat depleted finances, but she made interesting talk.

Fortune telling, one of the older professions, must be fun—at least the so-called seers always get a "good play" where there is a crowd. If Anna is really in on the "know" wonder if she would not have fared better at the "over and under" tables. She could have put them out of business in less than no time at all. Money? Bah! Fortune telling is more fun, says Anna.

First Aid Tent Is Maintained on Grounds
A first aid tent was maintained on the festival grounds by the Antioch rescue squad throughout the celebration.

It is a tribute to the efficiency with which the affair was conducted by the Lions club and watched over by regular and special police officers, that except for one woman who became faint while on one of the "rides," none of the thousands who enjoyed themselves at the festival suffered mishaps of any kind.

President Oscar E. Hachmeister, and W. I. Scott, general chairman of the festival, have expressed themselves as being well pleased with the 1940 event.

Drum and Bugle Corps Receives Lake Villa Gift

Volunteer Firemen Send Check for $15 "In Appreciation"

The Antioch Junior Legion Drum and Bugle corps has received a gift of $15 from the Lake Villa Volunteer Fire department as a token of appreciation for entertainment furnished at the "Lake Villa Days" carnival recently.

In sending the check to Otto S. Klass, adviser to the corps, Secretary Albert T. Kapple of the Lake Villa firemen expressed much appreciation for the corps' co-operation.

The drum corps has been exceedingly active during the past week or so. It played for the Kenosha County fair at Wilmett last week, for the Antioch Lions festival during the week-end and, 43 strong, paraded at the Wisconsin State American Legion convention in Kenosha Monday.

The Antioch corps was praised by many spectators for the fine appearance it made in the Kenosha parade.

Allendale Boys Help
Part of the credit for this showing, says Adviser Klass, should go to eight Allendale youths who were "emergency replacements" for Antioch members unable to take part because they were working on that day.

Faced with the prospect of taking a depleted corps to Kenosha, Adviser Klass got in touch with the management of the Allendale marching band, and found that some of its members could be "borrowed." Uniforms were rushed to Allendale, housewives there refitted them hastily. Jack Horan and Sammy Klass helped the drummers with an hour's preliminary drill—and the drum corps and "reinforcements" were highly commended during the parade for the precision of their marching and playing.

Supervisor Thompson and Musical director Jones have informed Klass that Allendale will be glad to co-operate with the Antioch corps at any time.

ANTIOCH ACES LOSE TO PIKEVILLE, 7 TO 9

Fifteen hits for the visiting Pikeville team and five costly errors on the part of the local team resulted in the Aces' loss of the game here Sunday, 7 to 9. Pikeville players were also guilty of 5 misplays but the errors did not figure so heavily in the scoring.

A double header with Springs team is on tap here for next Sunday, the first game to start at 1:30 o'clock.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Senate Votes to Call National Guard; War Spreads to Africa and Far East; England Offers Self Rule to India; U. S. Armed Forces Start War Games

(EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

Released by Western Newspaper Union

U. S. DEFENSE: War Games

Accent on war came closer to home for hundreds of thousands of American families when they saw 310,000 of their sons, brothers, and fathers march off to the largest peacetime maneuvers in American history.

From coast to coast, border to border, U. S. army regulars, National Guardsmen and organized reserves were mobilized for a 21-day training period that swung them in divisions, corps and armies into simulated battle conditions in a war game around the Canadian border.

Congress

Meanwhile President Roosevelt sent a message asking congress for authority to call the National Guard into training for a year and gave his endorsement to the movement for peacetime conscription. After a favorable committee report the senate readily granted the National Guard authority (71-7) and sent this measure to the house.

Senate military committee approved the modified Burke-Wadsworth conscription bill, but there were predictions the weeks of committee debate are only the prelude of what is ahead on the senate and house floor. Bill now confines registration to men between ages of 21 to 31. Former War Secretary Woodring opposes the measure and urges lowering army enlistment period of one year and raising pay, in order to attract volunteers.

House leaders devoted hours of struggle to excess profits taxes and defense orders, combination of which promises to be tightest bottleneck. Present plan is to permit cost of plant expansion to be deducted from taxable earnings over five-year period, at rate of 20 percent each year. Manufacturers want to pay for necessary new facilities, definitely do not want to risk paying taxes on worthless property, as many had to do after 1919. U. S. Chamber of Commerce said: "Probabilities of loss are so great money business men would rather not undertake such business."

Also in Washington:

1. List of contracts approved revealed the navy had agreed to purchase large number of trawlers to lay submarine nets in principal U. S. harbors.

2. Alien registration to include 3,000,000 will begin August 27.

3. Assistant State Secretary Welles holds action by Jurek comes within the act of Havana.

4. The house passed and sent to the senate a bill to permit wire-tapping in investigations of espionage, sabotage and treason.

NAMES

in the news

1. Running for re-election to the U. S. senate, in the Democratic and Republican primaries, Senator Hiram Johnson of California heard himself labeled by President Roosevelt as "no longer a liberal and certainly not a Progressive Democrat."

2. J. R. McCull, former comptroller general, died in Washington.

3. Lord Beaverbrook, Canadian-born London publisher, was added to England's inner war cabinet and is expected soon to replace Alfred Duff Cooper as minister of information.

4. Neville Chamberlain, Britain's premier and advocate of appeasement, underwent an operation and may retire from the cabinet.

5. Harriet Elliot, consumers' member of the National Defense commission, revealed that body would stagger buying for the army and navy to prevent undue pressure on the consumer and consequent price raises.

BATTLE OF BRITAIN: Invasion

Information from unoccupied France was that German troops in great volumes were moving toward the French channel ports. Germany closed all travel and communication routes between occupied and unoccupied France.

Worried about the turn of events in the Far East, England offered self-rule to India after the war if that country would now aid the British cause.

England, with a new army commander-in-chief, Sir Alan Brooke, changed its mode of defense. Boasting an army of 4,000,000 well-trained men, it swung back to the old theory that the best defense is an offense. Therefore road obstructions laid to delay movement of an enemy if he arrived were dug up to permit the British army to get at him faster, if he did.

Bombings

England bombed Germany and Germany bombed England. Both sides claimed heavy damage to the other. Germany claimed the port of Dover, England, a shambles. England claimed the port of Hamburg, Germany, "pulverized." Both sides denied they were hurt much.

Virtually all British raids on Germany and German-held territory have been night calls, when safety is greatest for the fliers. On the other hand, Germans have paid daylight calls on England. This has led to the opinion the Nazi fliers were more interested in observation than destruction. But several eastern and southern English ports virtually have ceased to be open for commerce.

In Africa

Meanwhile Mussolini began war-like gestures in Africa. Italian troops said to number 250,000 moved from Italian possessions on Egypt and British Somaliland. London newspapers warned their readers to expect some Italian successes. Duce's goal is believed to be Suez and the gate to India.

INDIGNATION: Japan So Sorry

Arrest of nine British trade leaders and journalists in Japan was designated by Tokyo as breaking up of an espionage plot. Nipponese reported "suicide" of one journalist soon after his arrest. They said he unfortunately leaped from a window.

England demanded explanations and London papers called for retaliation. Four Britishers eventually were released but London was aroused by now and the arrest of an undisclosed number of Japanese in England, and elsewhere in the British empire, put a further strain on Anglo-Japanese relations.

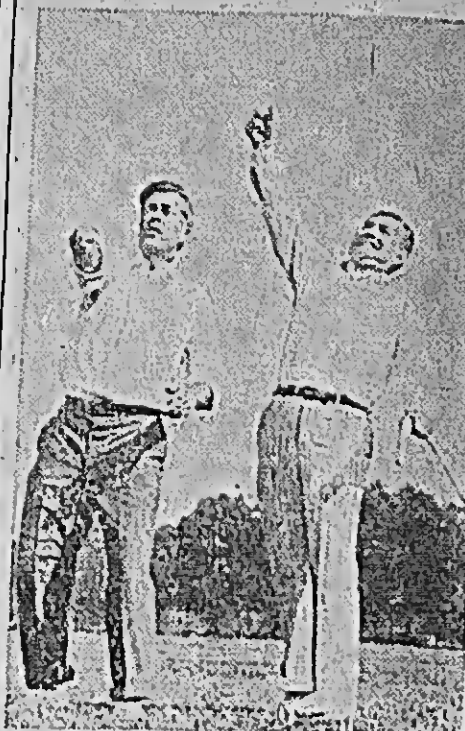

Ambassador Nomura Shigemitsu lodged a "strong protest" with Viscount Halifax, Britain's foreign secretary, against arrest in London of representatives of two great Japanese banking and commercial houses. He was said to have requested their immediate release. There was no official comment, but unofficially it was said the arrest of the British in Japan and of the Japanese in Britain was "pure coincidence." Tokyo said the British action was retaliation.

SPIES:

Nation Alert

G-Men have increased their force, due to many complaints about espionage. Chief G-Man J. Edgar Hoover told governors and their representatives, called together by President Roosevelt to form a common front against Fifth Columnists. Prior to 1938 the FBI investigated 35 cases a year. In 1938 the number rose to 250 and last year to 1,651. So far this year 10,555 investigations have been made.

Boomerangs

CAMPAIGN: The Farmer

Republican candidate, Wendell Willkie, bent an ear to the wheat and corn belt problems when he ended his Colorado vacation by going to Des Moines, Iowa, to meet governors and their representatives from midwestern states. What they told him form the basis for his agricultural utterances in his acceptance speech. But he indicated he will advocate no change in the current farm program.

Efforts of Senator Wheeler (D., Mont.) to learn the Republican candidate's views on the conscription measures failed. Willkie said the President could have his opinion anytime he asked for it. Otherwise they also will first appear in the acceptance speech.

Democratic candidate for vice president, Farm Secretary Henry A. Wallace, changed his mind about staying in office during the campaign. He said he will resign when he accepts the nomination. He also had a little trouble with a "boomerang" (see cut).

BRITAIN'S PROBLEM: Naval Losses

German claims to heavy destruction of British shipping show basis for alarm. Britain started war with 123 destroyers. They admit 29 are sunk and more are laid up for repairs. Less than 100 are believed in operation. Nazis say British loss in merchant ships is larger than in the World war, in excess of 5,000,000 tons.

Ships for Sale

Condition may have reaction in U. S. The United States has 238 destroyers, twice as many as any other two navies. Committee to Defend America by Aiding Allies is agitating for sale of 60 "over-age and unused destroyers" to Britain. Those favoring sale argue it would be better to put ships to practical use than to allow them to rust in U. S. navy yards.

Agitation was brought into the open when Gen. John J. Pershing, commander of the A. E. F., spoke in favor of the sale. He said it might be the last act America might be able to make "short of war," and said by sending help to the British we "still can hope with confidence to keep the war on the other side of the Atlantic ocean."

Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, in a speech to the anti-war rally at Chicago, warned that in the future America "may have to deal with a Europe dominated by Germany," and advocated "non-interference by America with affairs in Europe." For these remarks the "lone eagle" was branded as "the chief of the fifth column in this country," by Senator Pepper of Florida. This statement resulted in some bitter debate on the floor of the senate.

MISCELLANY:

Disappointment

The duke and duchess of Windsor frustrated the hopes of many expectant dowagers when they decided not to come to America, en route to the former king's new job, governor general of the Bahamas. His royal highness changed plans, decided to disembark at Bermuda. There have been rumors, however, that his Pennsylvania-born, Baltimore-bred wife soon may visit America for a plastic operation, details unannounced.

When reserve army officers of the medical corps were called to Carlisle barracks, Pennsylvania, for training, the major course was tropical and semi-tropical diseases. A death sentence was voted by a French court for the rebel Gen. Charles de Galle, who fled to England when the armistice was signed, and has since organized French forces for further resistance. Still to hear their fate are former Premier Edouard Daladier and Leon Blum and Marshal Maurice Gamelin. De Galle and Blum still are not in French hands.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

GOD'S CARE OF HIS PEOPLE

LESSON TEXT—Psalm 23.
GOLDEN TEXT—The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.—Psalm 23:1.

Confidence, contentment, assurance, safety, security—all words expressing the deep desires of the human heart—fittingly characterize the blessed and beautiful Shepherd Psalm which is our lesson next Sunday.

Here the soul meets God in personal, intimate fellowship—in the promise of provision for every need, deliverance from every danger, the assurance of both present and ultimate blessing. It has become the best known of all psalms and perhaps the favorite scripture of most Christians.

Familiarity may cause us to miss the blessing of such a scripture passage. To help us to make a fresh approach to this Twenty-third Psalm, let us follow the suggestion of Dr. W. E. Barnes and think of it as describing the journey of life. We find that we may go forth

I. In the Care of a Sure Guide (vv. 1, 2).

Nothing is more important in traversing an unfamiliar land than to have a competent guide. The journey of life is a pilgrimage through a land unknown to us, with its many pleasant places, but also its howling wildernesses, its pitfalls and its enemies in ambush.

"The Lord is my shepherd." If I am in His flock He will guide me, care for me and give me the joy of green pastures and still waters.

The expression "maketh me to lie down" (v. 2) is worthy of special comment—that all too often we become too busy or too important to take the rest we should have, and the Good Shepherd has to "bend the knee" of the sheep and make him lie down, sometimes even by the force of sickness, or of trying circumstance. Why do we make it necessary for our Shepherd to thus deal with us?

II. With Every Need Provided (vv. 3-5).

We are a needy people, constantly dependent on the loving provision of our God. Dr. J. H. Jowett says that man has three enemies: (1) The sin of yesterday, from which he cannot get away; (2) the temptation of today, made more powerful by the pressure of the clever and insidious seducer, Satan; and (3) the fear of death which awaits him tomorrow. Good Shepherd, wilt Thou meet these mine enemies for me? "Yes," comes His answer through the psalmist.

For the sin of yesterday there is the restoring of the soul. Everywhere the power of God is evident, restoring that which has been destroyed or broken down, healing the wound; but nowhere is it more evident or blessed than in His restorative ministries to the soul. He cleanses from sin, gives peace through His Word, joy through a hymn or a bit of poetry, comfort in the fellowship of a friend.

For today—"He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake." The world offers many by-paths, and makes them seem to be the right way, but any heavenly Guide will lead me in the way of righteousness. This He does, not because of any merit in me, but for His own dear name's sake—for "the praise of the glory of his grace" (Eph. 1:6). That cares for the need of today.

But tomorrow, on some tomorrow, I must go the way of all flesh and (unless Jesus comes) I must "walk through the valley of the shadow of death." Even there I need "fear no evil." The Good Shepherd is as much with me in the dark and swelling waters of that valley as He was with me "beside the still waters." Little wonder that this psalm has been the comfort of tens of thousands of believers in Christ as they have passed through that valley. Why will anyone do without this Christ, who is the Good Shepherd (John 10:11)?

Every need finds its full satisfaction: enemies are discomfited, the oil of gladness anoints our heads, and our cups run over as we go on.

III. To a Destination Certain and Blessed (v. 6).

Not all who set out upon a journey reach their goal, but the Lord has never lost one of those entrusted to His care (John 17:12). Goodness and mercy through all the days of our lives would lead only to ultimate disappointment if they did not bring us to the Father's house.

In that house there are "many mansions" or abiding places (John 14:2) prepared for us by our Lord. We know we shall come to that blessed journey's end with safety, because He will bring us there, to go in and out no more forever.

To study such a lesson is to create the desire in one's heart that all men should know about this Good Shepherd, to be brought into His flock. Reader, do you know Christ as your Saviour and the Shepherd of your soul? If not, will you not come to Him now by faith?

'Electric Eye' Made 50 Times Keener at U. of I.

A method to increase the keenness of television "eyes" and improve their response to colors has been developed in the electrical research laboratories of the University of Illinois. It involves multiplying the light-sensitivity of a potassium surface as much as 50 times.

It also is valuable for the "electric eyes" used by astronomers to measure the light of stars. Also, it may increase the sound quality of movies by reducing background noise and the amount of amplification needed in making the sound audible.

The "electric eye" in common use in recent years was made possible by the work of University of Illinois scientists years ago who showed how to increase the sensitivity and durability of the original selenium cell.

The new development was carried to completion by Prof. Joseph T. Tycociner, father of the sound-on-film for movies. A patent has been granted.

The method consists of bombarding the light-sensitive potassium surface in a photoelectric cell or "electric eye" with atomic hydrogen and electrons. It may be applied to other alkali metals used for the sensitive surface also, but with less increase in their light-sensitivity.

University of Illinois College of Pharmacy Has 80-Year History

For 80 years the University of Illinois College of Pharmacy has been training men and women to accurately compound prescriptions. It was the first pharmacy school west of the Alleghenies and the third in the nation. Today it is the only recognized school of its kind in the state.

The first class, 80 years ago, met six hours a week for 20 weeks. The courses consisted of lectures by various practicing "druggists." There was no laboratory work.

The 227 students now registered in the college must complete a four-year course of study. Their teachers are experts in the field. The course includes adequate laboratory as well as classroom training.

Candidates for pharmacist's papers also must be credited with four years of service as an apprentice working under the supervision of an experienced registered pharmacist. Then, after passing a stringent state examination, they may be licensed as registered pharmacists and place "R.Ph." after their names.

Training in the University of Illinois College of Pharmacy qualifies the graduates not only to fill prescriptions, but also to enter the research or manufacturing fields of pharmacy. The students learn not only what drugs to use, but why, and how they are prepared.

Univ. of Illinois Has 3 Colleges In Chicago Unit

Medicine, Dentistry, Pharmacy Are Part of City's Great Medical Center.

Illinois has the nation's largest College of Medicine in terms of numbers of students. It has a College of Dentistry building which by common consent is regarded as the best in the world; it has a College of Pharmacy which was the first of its kind west of the Allegheny mountains, the third in the nation, and today is one of the country's leaders. Dr. R. B. Allen, executive dean of University of Illinois colleges in Chicago, said today.

The university's colleges of Medicine, Dentistry, and Pharmacy and the associated hospital units of the state department of public welfare in Chicago are the second largest part of the city's great West Side medical center. The largest unit of the center are the Cook County hospitals having more than 3,000 beds. The center spreads over several large city blocks.

"In relation to the entire state, the University of Illinois colleges have a unique position," Dean Allen said. "Every one of the 635 medical students is a resident of the state of Illinois. The College of Pharmacy is the only approved college of its kind in the state."

Relations of the three University of Illinois colleges with the state department of public welfare are an outstanding and unique example of co-operation between state units. The department provides buildings for special research and institutional work, and the university provides the clinical and teaching staff. The patients come from all parts of the state. The buildings adjoin and are a part of the university's medical campus.

"The colleges are as much a part of the University of Illinois as those located in Urbana-Champaign on the main campus. But they are located in Chicago because here are located the hospital and other facilities which are necessary for training professional men and women in the health sciences," explains Dean Allen.

Approximately 1,200 students are registered in the university's three colleges at Chicago. The staff of 700 persons for teaching and other services includes approximately 300 instructors who serve without salary while maintaining private practices.

The plant is valued at nearly $4,000,000. The clinics and dispensaries serve more than 60,000 persons a year. There are 200 students in medicine, 225 in dentistry, 200 in pharmacy, and some 200 graduate and special students.

Among the hospitals and institutes maintained here by the state department of Public Welfare and staffed by the University of Illinois are the Research and Educational hospital, a general hospital of 300 beds. Each year some 6,000 charity patients are selected for study and care here. The dental department cares for 120 more patients a year, 70 per cent in the hospital.

Seven surgical operating rooms have amphitheaters for medical students to view the work of the staff experts. The cancer clinic has a 400,000 volt X-ray machine, recently acquired 20 grams of radium for its work. The entire hospital is used for teaching medical students through practical clinical work.

The Illinois Surgical Institute for Children has beds for 100 patients. Its services include a treatment swimming pool, rest rooms, and a shop for manufacturing braces and plaster casts. Patients are admitted from anywhere in the state when they are unable to pay for necessary services, or when the condition from which they suffer can be benefited by special study and has teaching value.

The Psychiatric Institute is a central research unit for all state hospitals caring for mental cases. It now has space only for 600 patients but a new building to be occupied this summer will provide for 120 more beds for this department and the department of Neurology and Neurosurgery.

The Institute for Juvenile Research is unique in that it is studying the causes, prevention, and treatment of juvenile delinquency in all forms. No other state has a service organized in this way. Its studies in the growth and development of children are of special medical interest.

Dean Allen calls attention to a unique example of collaboration between not only two colleges of the University of Illinois but colleges located on the two campuses—that at Chicago and that at Urbana-Champaign. This example is the College of Engineering at Urbana-Champaign. The engineers are experts in studying the equipment, the physicians in studying the effects on humans.

1,500 Editorials Read In WILL Program

More than 1,500 newspaper editorials are read every year in the "Illinois Editorial Review" program presented twice a week over the University of Illinois non-commercial radio station, WILL (580 kc.). It is the only educational non-commercial broadcaster in the state.

Two hundred copies of Illinois daily and weekly newspapers are read each week to prepare the "Illinois Editorial Review." The papers include some 25 daily and 50 weekly publications from all parts of the state.

The University of Illinois has the world's first association of dads of college students. It was organized in 1921. Current officers of the University of Illinois Dad's association are Perry Graves, Robinson, president; George F. Maharry, Tolono, vice president; Chauncey L. Finck, Urbana, secretary-treasurer. Directors are John R. Fornoff, Streator; Roy J. Solfsburg, Aurora; Frank H. McKelvey, Springfield; Wert Herrick, Clinton; C. C. Glasscock, Mattoon.

Sanatorium . . .

Sanatorium is a mighty tribute also to a small group of public officials and laymen who recognized a deplorable condition and took steps to alleviate it. The trustees say that without the support of the county supervisors it would have been impossible to be in operation today, and actually taking care of patients.

Rather than wait until every blade of grass had started and the little details made ready, the trustees have opened it so that treatment can start and attention given to those needing it. Although the sanatorium will not be dedicated until Sunday, August 18, those in charge have the satisfaction of knowing that 170 have been admitted, 92 are in residence, 20 discharged as non-tuberculosis and 38 dismissed as well.

Trustees of the Lake County Tuberculosis Sanatorium are: Dr. Theodore S. Proxmire, Lake Forest, president; James F. Stiles, Jr., Lake Bluff, secretary, and Victor O. Woertz, Waukegan.

Dr. Charles K. Petter is superintendent and medical director.

Located on State Highway No. 20, just west of Waukegan, the building is on 22 acres of ground. A home for nurses and one for the superintendent are adjacent to the main structure.

Costing $563,000, of which $193,000 was a federal grant and the balance a bond issue and current tax funds, the hospital has a 100 bed capacity. Medical facilities provide complete care. A clinic is also part of it in which patients with mild cases can be given competent attention, without cost.

The program for the dedication was announced this week. The trustees are now urging the public to visit the hospital and see for themselves the sanatorium that has been made possible by taxes.

Magazines, books, games and gymnasium equipment are needed for patients to help keep them occupied during convalescence.

Caught: One Muskrat

Twice the headlights on John Bates' car went out and twice he went to an Adrian, Mich., garage to have defective wiring replaced. The third time he suspected that some strange agency was at work so he placed a trap under the hood and caught a muskrat which had been gnawing the wires.

Mrs. Moran Dies in Salem Township

Mrs. R. W. Moran, who was born Zita Kavanagh, Oct. 19, 1868, in Utica, Ill., died suddenly at her home in Salem township last Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Moran had appeared to be in fair health, and had lain down to take a nap when she passed away.

Mrs. Moran was a resident of Salem township for many years, and leaves a host of friends.

She was a daughter of the late Michael and Nellie Dolan Kavanagh. Thirty-four years ago she was united in marriage with Richard W. Moran of Trevor, who survives her. A son who was born to this union, died in infancy.

Mrs. Moran was laid to rest beside her infant son in the Holy Name cemetery at Wilmot following services Saturday morning at the Holy Name church.

She is survived by her husband; by a sister, Mrs. Ben Van Duzer of Antioch, and four brothers, Charles and Frank of Chicago; Edward of Prairie du Chien, Wis.; and William, of Coronado, Calif.

Another brother, Emmet, a veteran of the world war, died August 19, 1933, in Los Angeles.

Many of the Lake county churches are expected to send delegates to the Gideon rally that will be held Sunday on the Bible Conference grounds at Long lake. There will be special religious programs at 3 and 7 p. m.
